Sports Related Summer Vacation Ideas

What type of vacation ideas are you thinking about for this year? The same old, same old? Why not break out of the mold and try something new! Are you all sports nuts? There are a ton of great options for sports enthusiasts looking for great summer vacation ideas.

These are several to get you started:

Take Your Family to See Some Stadiums

Have you ever gone to Yankee Stadium or Dodger Stadium? Wouldn't you like to see the new Target Field where the Twins play? Have you relocated and you'd love to go home and see your favorite team play a 3-game series against a division rival? If you go, be sure to head to the ballpark early to catch batting practice and maybe snag an autograph or 2 as well. Sample the ballpark hot dogs and other fine cuisine, and pick up a few souvenirs as reminders of your trip. For those on a tighter budget, taking the same approach with minor league ballparks can be just as fun. Fireworks and music concerts are often included with the price of admission, and everything is geared toward family fun.

Take a NASCAR Trip

What Dodger and Yankee stadiums are to baseball, Daytona and Bristol Motor Speedway are to racing, in addition to several other tracks like Darlington, Talladega, Indianapolis and others. A 10-day trip can allow you the opportunity to take in up to six races in the 3 top NASCAR divisions over 2 weekends. Bring your ear plugs!

NFL Training Camps

Training camps give an NFL fan the chance to have access to their teams and the players that you can't get during football season. Autographs are easy to get. The atmosphere is fun and relaxed for fans the competition on the field is tough, as players are fighting for a job or playing time.

Have a Virtual Road Trip

Here's what we mean. Stay at home and take in all your favorite sports on the tV. Quality sports events are on 24/7 these days, so you'll never lack for something good to watch. Consider upgrading your satellite package to make sure you can watch all the games you want. Purchase a new HDTV if needed. Have an Nashville HVAC contractor out to service or replace your central air conditioner so you'll be cool and comfortable while you watch all the fantastic action. Which one sounds the best to you?

Other options include heading off to a PGA Tour or WTA Tennis event, participating in a fantasy baseball camp, traveling to see your favorite soccer teams, or playing great golf courses around the country. There are so many great choices, so there's sure to be one your whole family will enjoy.
